Where children learn and grow

On 1st December 2020, we held a webinar for the fantastic teachers that we work with in providing high quality educational experiences for the most disadvantaged children across England and North Wales. If you are interested in following up with some of the links suggested by our speakers, you can do so here:

Webinar Resources

Mary Hext, our Farm Discovery Manager, led us through the government's guidance on health and safety on educational visits. You can find the latest information on this here:
